Spring 2010

Thursday mornings, 9:30 – 11:15
St. Brigid Parish Center
2001 Massachusetts Avenue, Lexington, MA

March 4    Vatican II's Nostra Aetate: Relationship of the Church to Non-Christian Religions

Rabbi Howard Jaffe is Senior Rabbi of Temple Isaiah, Lexington. Rabbi Jaffe will outline the Council's Nostra Aetate, and ask us to examine how this document changed how Catholics relate to non-Christians, then and now.

March 11    Evangelization of the 'Digital Continent'

Father Austin Fleming is Pastor of Holy Family Parish, Concord. Father will help us see the 'digital continent,' a title given to websites, blogs and social networks by the Pope, as a mission territory where the Church has an opportunity and a responsibility to be active and present.

March 18    The Transfiguration: Goal of the Spiritual Life

Father James Savage is Parochial Vicar at St. Paul's Church, Cambridge. By examining an iconic representation of the transfiguration of Jesus, Father will lead us in finding a picture of the type of life promised to us as followers of His way.

March 25    A Mother's Evolving Prayer

Clare Dunsford is an Associate Dean in the College of Arts and Sciences at Boston College. Ms. Dunsford, author of the memoir, Spelling Love with an 'X': A Mother, a Son, and the Gene That Binds Them, will take us on her journey towards acceptance of the genetic condition that challenges her family.

April 8    Secrets of Prayer

Sister Nancy Corcoran, CSJ, is the Catholic Chaplain and Director of Newman Catholic Ministry at Wellesley College. Sister will help us explore prayer as a comprehensive way of being in the world and discover how God can and does work in and through us...willing or not.

April 15    The Spirituality of Blessed Mother Teresa

Doris Hallee is one of the founders of the 'I Thirst' Movement, a lay group in the Missionaries of Charity family. Ms. Hallee will share her in-depth experiences of Blessed Mother Teresa's spirituality.

One of the core values of WINGS is to grow in our relationships with one another. With this in mind, please be our guest at a light luncheon following this final session. Feel free to bring a friend!
